We know that caring for a parent or loved one is very rewarding, but also can be a full-time and exhausting role. The Avalon Assisted Living Residences offer short-term respite stays for seniors, and provides relief for caregivers from day-to-day caregiving responsibilities. The Avalon also offers short-term stays to provide individuals with the opportunity to experience assisted living and enable one to make important lifestyle decisions. At The Avalon, your loved one will receive the same high quality care and services as our full-time residents.
